

Postgraduate supervision in practice

CENTRE FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING CERTIFY THAT

Xavier Thibert-Plante

has completed the course Postgraduate supervision in practice, which is part of the regular training programme for teachers in higher education at Umeå University, Sweden.

The course is comprised of 10 full days, scheduled between 13 October and 12 November 2015.

CONTENT

The procedure and pedagogical aspects of supervision
The research practice and supervisory goals at my department
Two perspectives - student and supervisor
The components of a productive research learning environment
Practising interaction and communication skills
Gender and ethnicity in a supervisory practice
Rules, regulations and ethics for supervisors

COURSE DISPOSITION

Short lectures are interspersed with group discussions, seminars and implemented exercises. Six days are formally scheduled and four days are devoted to individual assignments or reading texts connected to the course content.

*Course organizers were Michael Haney and Kerstin Dahlblom, Umeå University.
Umeå 2016-01-07*

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading 'Agnetha Lundström'.

*Agnetha Lundström
Centre for Teaching and Learning*